The _____ chapter at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh acknowledges the responsibility the chapter has to conduct its affairs in a manner that will be a credit to the individual members of the chapter, the local community and the college. The chapter pledges the following:

- To abide by all Interfraternity/Panhellenic guidelines;
- To develop membership practices that encourage participation by students irrespective of race, creed, national origin, age, disability, or sexual orientation;
- To adopt, maintain and conduct business in accordance with Wisconsin State law, the Student Discipline Code and the constitution and by-laws of your chapter filed with the Greek Life Advisor;
- To promote intellectual and social development of chapter members;
- To encourage academic excellence through chapter programs and efforts of individual members;
- To engage in college and community service projects;
- To participate in the appropriate Greek governance council at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh;
- To develop opportunities for leadership and service for chapter members;
- To establish and follow an educational and constructive new member education program consistent with the laws of the State of Wisconsin and University of Wisconsin Oshkosh regarding hazing;
- To exercise sound fiscal management and record keeping;
- To respect the rights of others both on and off campus;
- To maintain or exceed the community, social and cultural standards of the surrounding community.
